

ADM+S Centre Policy

Social Media

OVERVIEW

The ARC Centre of Excellence for Automated Decision-Making and Society (ADM+S) is a cross-disciplinary, national research centre, which aims to create the knowledge and strategies necessary for responsible, ethical, and inclusive automated decision-making. Funded by the Australian Research Council from 2020 to 2026, ADM+S is hosted at RMIT in Melbourne, Australia, with nodes located at eight other Australian universities, and partners around the world.

Centre Objectives

- Generate an integrated understanding of the evolution, distribution, dynamics and potential of ADM
- Formulate world-leading policy and practice in responsible, ethical and inclusive ADM, for governments, industry and the non-profit sectors;
- Enhance public understanding, and inform public debate on ADM; and
- Educate and train researchers and practitioners in this challenging new field.

SCOPE

This policy sets out the ADM+S Centre's approach to using social media, including the Centre's expectations of its members including staff, students and affiliates.

POLICY

1. Social media is defined as the collection of digital communication channels dedicated to community-based input, interaction, content sharing and collaboration, including, but not limited to: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, YouTube; and forums, such as Reddit and blogs.
2. In accordance with the Centre's engagement objectives, which aim to enhance public understanding and inform public debate on automated decision-making, ADM+S members are encouraged to engage with the Centre via social media.
